

Can I use a Publishing Deal?

Yes, if the following conditions apply:

The paper has a University of Cambridge corresponding author

- The deals cover staff and students at the University of Cambridge (including colleges). Alumni, visitors, honorary and emeritus staff are not covered other than in exceptional circumstances.

Your paper type is covered by a deal

- Most of the deals cover only research or review papers. The Open Access website provides details of each deal.

Your paper was submitted (or accepted- deal depending) during the term of a deal

- Conditions apply. See our website for details.

Your journal is covered by a deal

- The deals do not always cover a publisher's entire portfolio of journals. Please consult our journal checker.

Any applicable funding cap has not been exceeded

- Certain deals (such as Wiley and Wolters Kluwer) have annual funding caps. Papers that are accepted after the cap has been exceeded are not covered by the deal. The Open Access Team may be able to help with the APC in certain circumstances.
